

Lea de Wit's Bio

Glass artist, Lea de Wit, creates sculptures, wall hangings, and vessels that delight and inspire. She has received instruction at Scuola del Vetro, Abate Zanetti, in Murano, Italy, at Red Deer College in Canada, at the Corning Museum of Glass in Corning, New York, at Haystack Mountain School of Crafts in Deer Isle, Maine. She received a scholarship to study with Mary Van Cline at the Penland School of Crafts in North Carolina. She has studied under Italian glassblowing masters, Pino Signoretto, Elio Quarisa, and Davide Salvatore, and renowned glass sculpture artist, Karen Willenbrink-Johnsen. Her passion for the medium shows in her attention to detail. Her work is part of art collections at Marriott Irvine, Rady Children's Hospital, Vista Civic Center, L'Auberge Del Mar, Professional Hospital Supply, Inc., Aveda Corporation, and Vistage International, Inc., as well as other corporate and private collections nationwide.